* 2. Mr. [] of the Map Division, has received a call from Mr. Claxton, of the State Department Legislative staff, asking whether CIA could prepare approximately 200 copies of an unclassified version of a map originally prepared by OCI for a briefing of Secretary Dulles which shows U. S. military bases over the world. The State Department is anxious to make them available to Congressmen in connection with local talks which Congressmen have to give. This matter is being checked with Mr. Sheldon.

* 3. Mr. Frank T. Collins, of the India/Pakistan Desk of the State Department, called to inquire whether 15 additional copies of CIA map No. 11352 (unclassified) on India/Pakistan might be made available in connection with the booklets being prepared for a Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee and Vice President Nixon's group prior to their trip abroad. Mr. [] of the Map Division, is making arrangements to make the maps directly available to Mr. Collins as they are unclassified.

* 4. After receiving the information from Mr. [] of the Inspector General's office, I called Mr. Hefner, of Senator Wiley's office, to tell him that the Senator could inform his friends, the [] that their son, [], would not be sent overseas. Mr. Hefner took the opportunity to express the hope that there was no cause for concern in the present [], and I reassured him on this point.

25X1A 6. I informed Miss Adams, of the office of Senator McCarran, that [redacted] had been approved for employment with CIA.

25X1A 7. Mr. Yeager, of the office of Senator Knowland, asked me, on behalf of the Senator, why CIA did not have a job for [redacted] 25X1A of the University of San Francisco. [redacted] had been allegedly offered a position with CIA, sold his house, and moved his family to Washington and was then told that there was no position. I told Mr. Yeager I would look into the matter for him.
